

2015 BODY CONFIDENCE CANADA AWARD RECIPIENT

AMRIT SINGH, a Registered Acupuncturist has been running Drop the Needle Acupuncture Advocacy for over six years. It's the ONLY one-on-one reduced rates acupuncture & healing program providing accessible healthcare to marginalized groups, youth, newcomers to Canada, LGBTQ, women, artists & those without healthcare benefits through employment. She completed her Diploma of Acupuncture at the Institute of Traditional Medicine in Toronto, after which she extended her studies in Beijing, Tokyo, San Francisco and New York. Amrit released her first photography exhibit (Nov, 2014) Drop The Needle. The goal of this collection was to promote the images of women and people of colour, LGBTQ, scars, stretch marks, thick people who are not normally represented in advertisements as those receiving healing work in acupuncture, gua sha, cupping – healing.
